Dear Parents and Carers,

I am writing with an important update regarding Sir Jonathan North Girls' College. Following over 5 wonderful and fulfilling years leading the college, its staff and students, I will be retiring at the end of the academic year and therefore, leaving my post as Principal of the college in July.

I have thoroughly enjoyed my time working with the whole college community and have many happy memories to take away; from individual student achievements to wider college awards and from vibrant culture day celebrations to the buzz of GCSE results days.

I am proud of all that Sir Jonathan North Girls' College has achieved and that I leave with the college positioned in the top ten of all Leicester city schools, based on academic performance. My successor will certainly be very fortunate to lead forward a wonderful cohort of students and dedicated staff.

Lionheart Educational Trust is now recruiting a new Associate Principal, who will be in post by the new academic year, enabling continuous college leadership.

With interviews expected to take place in the coming weeks, I will write to you again before February half-term with an update on the appointment.

Thank you for your continued support.

Yours faithfully

Rose Angus
Principal
